BFS-001 ARDS PENINSULA & GREY ABBEY

Date: Aug 11, 2024 Time: 01:30 PM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $199.00

OVERVIEW

Head outside of Belfast and well off the beaten track on a tour of rural Ards Peninsula in County Down, with an inside visit to abbey ruins dating back to 1193. The coastal roads play hide and seek with the sea, darting in and out of rounded hills and giving glimpses of sandy beaches and bustling harbors. A fine example of a PBS-style Georgian country home, Grey Abbey House has been in the same family for over 400 years, and the crumbling Cistercian abbey you'll tour on its park-like grounds is twice that age. Sights seen elsewhere on this tranquil peninsula include the rustic fishing village of Ballywalter and the seagoing town of Donaghadee, where you'll enjoy spectacular views across the Irish Sea – and perhaps even spot Scotland. The 1836 lighthouse here was first in Ireland to be lit by electricity. An Irish Coffee stop at a friendly local hostelry and some free time to independently explore this pretty little hamlet provide a refreshing glimpse into pastoral life on Ards.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a magical coastal drive through the Ards Peninsula, near Belfast yet unexpectedly rural.

- See Stormont Castle enroute, seat of the Northern Ireland Assembly and symbol of newfound accord.
- Wander the evocative ruins of a 12th-century abbey on the grounds of a Georgian manor house.
- Pass through picturesque villages, stopping in one for Irish Coffee and incomparable Irish Sea views.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing; include a light raincoat or umbrella.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour can include up to 1 1/2 hours of walking, mainly at the guest's discretion. The site at Grey Abbey is not suitable for wheelchair guests or those guests with mobility concerns. Caution should be taken as the terrain includes uneven surfaces. Guests should be prepared for the possibility of rain. The order of sites visited may vary.

You'll pass red-brick Queen's University and glass-walled Waterfront Hall. You'll stop for photos in suburbs where wall murals trumpet the deep political and cultural passions for which Belfast is so famous, and travel out to Stormont, where the old Parliament Building is now the seat of the Northern Ireland Assembly. IOM-002 HISTORIC CASTLETOWN

Date: Aug 12, 2024 Time: 09:25 AM, 01:25 PM

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $199.00

OVERVIEW

Ride a classic steam-engine train through pastoral countryside and along the coast to Castletown, where the medieval Castle Rushen and House of Keys await. The Southern Steam Railway has been chugging away since 1874, the oldest line of its type in Britain. Your rail journey affords ever-changing, always spectacular views and the impressive sights continue when you arrive in Castletown. Founded in 1090 and once the Isle of Man's capital, this proud burg is little changed from how it looked in the 1800s. Perhaps that's because the town clock has only ever had one hand. Your inside tour of handsome, limestone-walled Castle Rushen takes you even further back in time – to when clammy dungeons and “murder holes” over the ceiling of passageways were the way to make would-be invaders feel...unwelcome. You'll notice things are a lot more civilized at the well-restored House of Keys, where the Manx parliament convened until the seat of government moved to Douglas in 1869. By the way, the Isle of Man's 1000-year-old High Court of Tynwald is the longest-running continuous parliament on the planet.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Ride the rails by steam-powered train to the Isle of Man's former capital city, Castletown.
 - Tour Castle Rushen, one of the British Isles' finest medieval castles, dating from the 13th century.
 - See its classic castle features including dungeons, guardrooms, chapel and “murder holes”.
 - Visit the House of Keys, where historic decisions were made by the long-running Manx parliament in the 1860s.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Wear warm, weatherproof clothing.
 - Flat, sturdy walking shoes are recommended.
 - Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of moderate walking, some over uneven ground and with steps to negotiate at the Castle. Guests must also be able to make their own way on and off the train which requires climbing a few high steps. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and those with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina before participating.

IOM-013 MILNTOWN HOUSE & GARDENS

Date: Aug 12, 2024 Time: 09:45 AM

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $129.00

OVERVIEW

Visit Milntown, a sprawling country estate with a centuries-old Gothic-style home that is supposedly haunted, and meander through its magnificent gardens. Although features of the home date to the 1830s, the core of the residence is much older. While browsing the interior, you will view an outstanding collection of period furnishings, paintings, silverware and ceramics. Most of the pieces are from the last two families that lived in Milntown. You may also see the past owners' cars and motorcycles, many of which are nearly 100 years old. The gardens are equally impressive and full of horticultural wonders, a happy consequence of the warming Gulf Stream's influence on the microclimate. The majority of the gardens should be in bloom, including the shrub roses and herbaceous borders. For a different botanical perspective, meander along the Jungle Walk, where you will see unexpected species such as ferns native to Australia.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Explore the residence and gardens of Milntown, a centuries-old country estate.
 - Browse the home's magnificent interior, which is furnished with period pieces.
 - Meander winding trails through the gardens, which should be a riot of color.
- HELPFUL HINTS
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.

The house is not wheelchair-accessible; therefore, the tour is not available for wheelchair guests. Those with mobility concerns should evaluate their ability and stamina before joining the tour.

OVERVIEW

Discover the fascinating history of the Isle of Man by visiting the House of Manannan museum and the world's oldest parliament at Tynwald Hill. The museum is quayside in the town of Peel, a fishing village with a long maritime history. As you browse the exhibits, you will gain an understanding of how the Celts and Vikings once lived on the island and hear stories of the stone crosses that dot the countryside. The museum's replica Norse long ship, known as Odin's Raven, is seaworthy, as it sailed from Norway to the Isle of Man before being put on display. The ship was built to celebrate the millennium of Tynwald, where the Vikings established the Manx parliament in the 10th century. At the grass-covered mound Tynwald Hill, you will hear legends about that period of time in the island's history. The mound supposedly contains earth from all of the island's parishes, which was ceremoniously buried there centuries ago.

The archeological treasures found inside these walls are just as impressive – from a sizable Norman cathedral, to the Roman cobblestones under your feet, to the Tudor half-timbered buildings all around you. After your expert-led orientation stroll, you'll have free time to delve even deeper independently. Explore the Chester Rows, half-timbered shops sitting above the ones on street level. Stop in at the Cheshire Military Museum or step into the Dewa Roman Experience for a sampling of life along a reconstructed Roman street. Of course, sometimes the best plan is to have no plan at all, allowing yourself to simply see what happens as you browse interesting shops or seek a typically English bite to eat.

OVERVIEW

Cross the River Mersey to visit the architectural and artistic treasures of Port Sunlight, a charming 19th-century village built by an industrialist for his factory workers. The famous "Soap King" and philanthropist William Lever named the locale after Sunlight Soap, his company's flagship product in the late 1800s and still a hit. The forward-thinking village remains one of the finest examples of early urban planning. On your guided walk here, you will notice a wide range of building styles, the result of 30 different architects working over the course of 80 years to design the hundreds of structures that make up the town. A museum sits in the heart of the village, with exhibits that clearly present Lever's vision for Port Sunlight and what it was like to live and work here in the Edwardian and Victorian periods. Just nearby, Lady Lever Art Gallery houses some of the finest-caliber decorative arts in the UK – everything from intricate tapestries to Wedgwood Jasperware, Chinese porcelains and priceless paintings from British masters like Gainsborough and Turner. To end the tour in quintessential English style, you'll relax over a pot of tea with fresh-baked scones, clotted cream and jam at the Leverhulme Hotel.
